Hi everyone. Here is my take on the issue at hand, and I would like to know everyone's opinion on it. Rise of the Witch-King, a tragedy for sure, does not have to be taken as the most horrible thing to happen to the United States. If the return of the Ancient One can be called the greatest tragedy in the history of the US, we are looking at a better option than the entire war itself. After all, we stopped the Ancient One, so that this could not happen. If that is not an achievement and there are no other reasons to call this event tragic than vanity and egotism, we should get our heads out of the clouds and realize that this country faces far more scary threats than these two fools did. While the threat the Twin Towers posed to this country was obvious, this nation is being sued by environmental lobbyists for the harms done by the effect of hauling all that concrete across the country for construction. It will never stop. There are people who feel that all the terrible is just a part of life and we should not mourn those who died to rid the world of this "evil" and let the "good" people pick up the pieces. A great time to say this is the beginning of the end of the United States. However, as dangerous it is, this plague will have an end. The name of that end is not going to be the "end of the US", but rather "the end of an age of humans and their failure to control their own destiny". The story that is being told by the MSM, is that the Twin Towers had a steel skeleton and by their very nature were not a direct threat to our homeland. In fact, the steel remains of the World Trade Center towers were going to be destroyed as part of the clean up process, so that they would not be a hazard to rebuilding or repair. If this happened today, who would be hurt and how could we stop this from happening? If the Twin Towers had only been steel, so too does our electric power grid, pipelines, bridges, dams, hospitals, high-rise buildings, factories and many other things that make up this country. There is no way to stop this from happening. It just goes into hiding. It can not be stopped nor prevented and that is the tragedy. The "New Age Of Man" that we are living in is not the Age of Man, but rather the Age of Stupidity. I truly feel that the world
